Mr.Y. M. Chaudhari for the Petitioner.
Ms.Priti Purandare for the Respondent - B. M. C.

CORAM : DALVEER BHANDARI, C.J. &
S.J. VAZIFDAR, J.
DATE : 24TH JUNE, 2005.

P.C. :

The learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner submits that on the basis of the documents supplied by him, the impugned order cannot be faulted with.

2. He further submits that some documents came to his possession only after the impugned order was passed and he may be permitted to file those documents before the Municipal Corporation and the Municipal Corporation be directed to consider the documents filed by the Petitioner and thereafter pass a reasoned order.

3. In consonance with the principles of natural justice, we direct the Assistant Commissioner “A” Ward who had earlier decided the Petitioner's case to reconsider the case of the Petitioner after taking into consideration new documents to be field by the Petitioner within a period of two weeks by a reasoned order within six weeks from the date of receipt of documents. No further directions are necessary. This Petition is accordingly disposed off.
